The Red Wind Howls Tsering Dondrup, 2025-06-17 A remarkable novel by one of Tibet's foremost authors The Red Wind Howls is a courageous and gripping portrayal of Tibetan suffering under Mao's regime The story delves deep into forbidden history spanning the famine of the Great Leap Forward the Cultural Revolution and most taboo of all the 1958 Amdo rebellion when Tibetans rose in armed revolt against the Chinese state Tsering Dondrup self published the book in 2006 because no publisher would risk accepting it When the authorities caught wind all copies were confiscated and the author faced severe reprisals He lost his job as head of the local archives his passport was confiscated and he has been under close surveillance ever since This powerful novel is set in part in the punitive labor camps to which Tibetans were sent after the failed rebellion where many perished from starvation or forced labor Inside and outside the camps it depicts with dark humor a world of informers cruelty and score settling against the backdrop of immeasurable environmental devastation and the destruction of traditional Tibetan ways of life The novel draws on extensive interviews conducted by the author and the rhythms of oral storytelling are reflected in its fragmented narrative style which jumps back and forth between periods and events An unparalleled account of the Chinese Communist Party's takeover of Tibet The Red Wind Howls is both a richly imaginative work of fiction and a vital piece of historical testimony

Tibet - a Country Where People Have Leapt a Thousand Years Forward Vinař, Jan, The core of the book is a critical edition of an unpublished reportage of Jan Vina from his 1959 trip to Tibet called Tibet A Country where People Have Leaped a Thousand Years Forward Vina's text was never published officially there are only fifteen copies of a samizdat edition printed in 1983 in Zurich and today it can be considered an important documentary material of the given historical period The reportage written in 1960 echoes the official Chinese narrative of Tibetan history and social development and his views reflect the Chinese interpretation of the March 1959 uprising. The book is accompanied by so far unpublished photographic material from the 1959 journalist expedition to Tibet and scholarly commentary by editors to the original text in the form of footnotes and several studies clarifying certain aspects of the topic and the historical and political context. Kamila Hladkov describes the clash of Chinese and Tibetan narratives explaining recent Tibetan history mainly regarding the occupation of Tibetan inhabited territories by the PLA in 1950-1951 and the legitimization of the regime after 1959. Lubo Bika provides detailed biography of Jan Vana and explains the historical background of the decade between 1950 and 1959 in Tibet. Analyzes the texts published by other visitors to Tibet in that time and introduces the phenomenon known in Tibetan language as thamzing or struggle sessions.

Confessions of a psychosaurus Carsten Stemm, 2020-04-15. A woman in black with colorful splinters drinks with the cool man. They fly together over stars under stars between stars. The life of the Titanic appears in its sinking. A paper boat floats casually in the water; it drifts cautiously towards a featherfoil. Bang! Ash falls from above. The Eyjafjallajökull is burst irretrievable. All confessions of the psychosaurus are written in this book in English, Hindi, Spanish, Arabic, French, Russian, and German.

Conflicting Memories, 2020-09-07. Conflicting Memories is a study of how the Tibetan encounter with the Chinese state during the Maoist era has been recalled and reimagined by Chinese and Tibetan authors and artists since the late 1970s. Written by a team of historians, anthropologists, and scholars of religion, literature, and culture, it examines official histories, biographies, memoirs, and films as well as oral testimonies, fiction, and writings by Buddhist adepts. The book includes translated extracts from key interviews, speeches, literature, and film scripts. Conflicting Memories explores what these revised versions of the past chose as their focus, which types of people produced them, and what aims they pursued in the production of new post-Mao descriptions of Tibet under Chinese socialism. Contributors include Robert Barnett, Benno Weiner, Françoise Robin, Bianca Horlemann, Alice Travers, Alex Raymond, Chung Tsering, Dawa Penjchar, Mortensen, Charlene Makley, Xinyin de Heering, Nicole Willock, Maria Turek, Geoffrey Barstow, Gedun Rabsal, Heather Stoddard, and Nyima. Conflicting Memories is a truly marvellous book. It has assembled critical readings of Tibetan memories of their fateful encounters with the Chinese Communists who came uninvited as their liberators and friends. Supplemented with excerpts from key Tibetan writings or oral reminiscences, the volume brings forth hitherto unheard of Tibetan voices. Yet these were not hidden voices but often commissioned by Chinese authorities or in dialogue with them, each trying to juggle the promissory pronouncements and an unsavoury reality. Taken together, the contrapuntal reading of these memories masterfully showcases Tibetan people's resourcefulness in dealing with a regime that often redefines its relations with Tibet while always aiming for total ownership.

URADYN E. BULAG, author of Collaborative Nationalism: The Politics of Friendship on China's Mongolian Frontier. Conflicting Memories offers an invaluable collection aiding us to think through the complex and much-contested ramifications of Tibet's incorporation into Maoist China. The mix of analytical articles by some of the best scholars now working in the area and original documents translated from the writings of astute Tibetan observers is particularly welcome. The volume will be required reading for all serious students of contemporary Tibet. MATTHEW KAPSTEIN author of The Tibetans. This remarkable book offers unequalled access to the Tibetan experience of Communist nation building. By examining how the Maoist encounter has been remembered and misremembered across many media under the influence of ever changing political conditions the authors communicate both the trauma of those years and the persisting difficulty of coming to terms with it for Chinese as well as Tibetans. The chapters enhanced by numerous first hand accounts and illustrations represent the best scholarship of this field. Strongly recommended for readers interested in the history of the People's Republic and its ethnic minorities. DONALD S SUTTON co author of Contesting the Yellow Dragon: Ethnicity, Religion and the State in the Sino-Tibetan Borderland with XIAOFEI KANG. This groundbreaking work sheds unprecedented light on the various processes of historical rewriting about Tibet since the death of Mao. The multivocal composition of the book offers rich and diverse accounts of a set of key events and epochal moments that attest to the numerous obstacles in retelling the Maoist past and the experience of suffering.
