Temptation Cd:

Struggling with God Simon D Podmore, 2013-10-31 Invoking the biblical motif of Jacob's struggle with the Face of God Genesis 32 Simon D Podmore undertakes a constructive theological account of spiritual trial tentatio known in German mystical and Lutheran tradition as Anfechtung in relation to enduring questions of the otherness and hiddenness of God and the self the problem of suffering and evil the freedom of Spirit and the anxious relationship between temptation and ordeal fear and desire This book traces a genealogy of spiritual trial from medieval German mystical theology through Lutheran and Pietistic thought Tauler Luther Arndt Boehme and reconstructs Kierkegaard's innovative yet under examined recovery of the category Anfægtelse a Danish cognate for Anfechtung within the modern context of the spiritless decline of Christendom Developing the relationship between struggle Anfechtung and release Gelassenheit Podmore proposes a Kierkegaardian theology of spiritual trial which elaborates the kenosis of the self before God in terms of Spirit's restless longing to rest transparently in God Offering an original rehabilitation of the temptation of spiritual trial this book strives for a renewed theological hermeneutic which speaks to the enduring human struggle to realise the unchanging love of God in the face of spiritual darkness

Obedience from First to Last Edmund Fong, 2020-03-18 Obedience from First to Last explores the theological significance of the obedience of Jesus Christ in Karl Barth's theology It does this via a threefold consideration of first the nature of Jesus incarnate obedience second the relation of that obedience to the obedience of the second triune person of the eternal Son and third the effects Jesus obedience has on our own obedience Barth not only affirms the pivotal role Jesus obedience has within the economy of salvation but by equating that obedience with that of the eternal Son's Barth gives Jesus obedience a pre eminent place within the immanent being of Godself The obedience of Jesus Christ is seen to have a co participatory role in God's determination of his own divine being that arises from the primordial act of divine election This notion bears on our understanding of freedom and obedience as divine freedom is expressed in divine obedience so it is with human freedom and human obedience

A Sensory History Manifesto Mark M.

Smith, 2021-05-10 A Sensory History Manifesto is a brief and timely meditation on the state of the field It invites historians who are unfamiliar with sensory history to adopt some of its insights and practices and it urges current practitioners to think in new ways about writing histories of the senses Starting from the premise that the sensorium is a historical formation Mark M Smith traces the origins of historical work on the senses long before the emergence of the field now called sensory history interrogating exploring and in some cases recovering pioneering work on the topic Smith argues that we are at an important moment in the writing of the history of the senses and he explains the potential that this field holds for the study of history generally In addition to highlighting the strengths of current work in sensory history Smith also identifies some of its shortcomings If sensory history provides historians of all persuasions times and places a useful and incisive way to write about the past it also challenges current practitioners to think more carefully about the historicity of the senses and the desirability even the urgency of engaged and sustained debate among themselves In this way A Sensory History Manifesto invites scholars to think about how their field needs to evolve if the real interpretive dividends of sensory history are to be realized Concise and convincing A Sensory History Manifesto is a must read for historians of all specializations
