Tengo Miedo Torero:

My Tender Matador Alfredo Castro, 2013 Tengo miedo, torero Pedro Lemebel, 2021 The Body as Capital Vinodh Venkatesh, 2015-12-10 Through economic liberalization and the untethering of labor and production markets masculinity as hegemon has entered a crisis stage Renegotiated labor and familial orders have triggered a widespread cultural renegotiation of how masculinity operates and is represented This holds especially true in Latin America Addressing this Vinodh Venkatesh uses contemporary Latin American literature to examine how masculinity is constructed and conceived The Body as Capital centers socioeconomic and political concerns anxieties and paradigms on the male anatomy and on the matrices of masculinities presented in fiction Developing concepts such as the market of masculinities and the transnational theater of masculinities the author explains how contemporary fiction centers the male body and masculine expressions as key components in the relationship between culture space and global tensile forces Venkatesh includes novels by canonical and newer writers from Mexico Central America the Caribbean Peru and Chile He focuses on texts produced after 1990 coinciding with what has popularly been termed the neoliberal experiment In addition to probing well known novels such as La fiesta del Chivo and La mujer habitada and their accompanying body of criticism The Body as Capital defines and examines several masculine tropes that will be of interest to scholars of contemporary Latin American literature and gender studies Ultimately Venkatesh argues for a more holistic approximation of discursive gender that will feed into other angles of criticism forging a new path in the critical debates over gender and sexuality in Latin American writing

Non-Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez, Michele Shaul, 2023-12-06 Non Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens studies how Latin American and Latinx authors represent non normative sexualities through a capitalist lens In our society heterosexuality manifests as privilege and has been normalized to such an extent that any sexuality that is perceived as different from the dominant cis gendered heteropatriarchal norm is considered deviant Non normative sexualities continue to be viewed by society as detrimental to the health of the nation Consequently how one is perceived by the dominant culture continues to limit one's ability to thrive Each chapter serves to analyze how one's perceived gender identity or sexuality can block access to economic opportunity Queer trans spatial and intersectional theories form the base of the literary analyses One of the contributors goals is to present capitalism as it is intersectionally present in life identity and society The authors studied in this collection come from the USA Puerto Rico Mexico and the Southern Cone of Latin America The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral, Juan E. De Castro, Nicholas Birns, 2013-09-26 The Contemporary Spanish American Novel provides an accessible introduction to an important World literature While many of the authors covered Aira Bola o Castellanos Moya V squez are gaining an increasing readership in English and are frequently taught there is sparse criticism in English beyond book reviews This book provides the guidance necessary for a more sophisticated and contextualized understanding of these authors and their works Underestimated or unfamiliar Spanish American novels and novelists are introduced through conceptually rigorous essays Sections on each writer include the author's reception in their native country Spanish America and Spain biographical history a critical examination of their work including key themes and conceptual concerns translation history scholarly reception The Contemporary Spanish American Novel offers an authoritative guide to a rich and varied novelistic tradition It covers all demographic areas including United States Latino authors in exploring the diversity of this literature and its major themes such as exile migration and gender representation

Queer Emergent Justin Perez, 2025-04-11 In Queer Emergent Justin Perez explores how advances in HIV prevention work alongside broader economic and political shifts in global health to shape queer subjectivities Drawing on ethnographic research among gay and transgender communities in urban Amazonian Peru Perez describes how queer social worlds emerge through scandalous storytelling a practice of exaggerating and embellishing stories about everyday life that transgresses social norms and hierarchies Perez shows that through such storytelling gay and transgender communities contested the assumptions of global HIV prevention's shift from the provision of costly antiretrovirals to the mitigation of social conditions like discrimination and stigma He argues that the global ambition to End AIDS by 2030 is not just a technical project oriented at ending the epidemic but also a project of sexual subjectification and ongoing social transformation By taking seriously the scandalous stories that gay and transgender Peruvians circulated as they responded to new forms of HIV prevention Perez reveals how they imagine possibilities of what could be as the effort to end AIDS continues to play out in the present Fashion, Gender and Agency in Latin American and Spanish Literature Stephanie N. Saunders, 2021 In the last two decades the glorification of sewing whether involving needlework tailoring or fashion design has thrived in Latin American and Iberian cultural works particularly literature In the last two decades the glorification of sewing whether involving needlework tailoring or fashion design has thrived in Latin American and Iberian cultural works particularly literature While fast fashion has relegated the handicraft to maquiladoras in the Global South Spanish and Latin American authors have created protagonists whose skill with needle and thread allows them to break out of culturally confining roles and spaces In this fictional realm seamstresses and tailors enter exciting adventures as spies peacemakers or explorers all facilitated by their artistry and expertise This book examines the depiction of women and the textile arts in contemporary Hispanic and Brazilian literature Employing space and gender theories the book explores how sewing traditionally viewed as respectable only if practiced at home gives agency and encourages self reflection and mobility allowing protagonists to transgress physical and socially prescribed limits Texts analyzed include Mar a Due as s El tiempo entre costuras 2009 C sar Aira s La costurera y el viento 1994 Pedro Lemebel s Tengo miedo torero 2001 Francesc Ponte de Peebles s The Seamstress 2009 and children's literature Encouraging readers to look behind garments to the agents of production the book shows how contemporary authors through their celebrations of an age old skill help to renew interest in sewing tailoring upcycling and embroidery A Last Supper of Queer Apostles Pedro Lemebel, 2024-05-28 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Translation Prize These days when an American president has decreed that there are only two genders male and female an undaunted lyrical voice from a southern corner of the hemisphere offers a model of resistance The New Yorker Intoxicating Sexy political and deeply humane We all owe Penguin Classics a round of shots for A Last Supper of Queer Apostles The Washington Post A galvanizing look at life on the margins of society by a crowning figure of Latin America's queer counterculture who celebrated melodrama kitsch extravagance and vulgarity of all kinds Garth Greenwell in playful performative linguistically inventive essays now in English for the first time A Penguin Classic I speak from my difference wrote Pedro Lemebel an openly queer writer and artist living through Chile's AIDS epidemic and the collapse of the Pinochet dictatorship In brilliantly innovative essays known as crónicas that combine memoir reportage fiction history and poetry he brought visibility and dignity to sexual minorities the poor and the powerless Touching on everything from Che Guevara to Elizabeth Taylor from the aftermath of authoritarian rule to the daily lives of Chile's locas a slur for trans women and effeminate gay men that he boldly reclaims his writing infuses political urgency with playfulness realism with absurdism and resistance with camp and his AIDS crónicas immortalize a generation of Chileans doubly disappeared by casting each loca as she falls sick in the starring role of her own private tragedy This volume brings together the best of his work introducing readers of English to the subversive genius of a literary activist and queer icon whose acrobatic explorations of the Santiago demimonde reverberate around the world For more than seventy five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 2 000 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators The Language of the In-Between Erika Almenara, 2022-10-04 Often the process of modern state formation is founded on the marginalization of certain groups and Latin America is no exception In The Language of the In Between Erika Almenara contends that literary production replicates this same process Looking at marginalized communities in Chile and Peru particularly writers who are travesti trans cuir queer and Indigenous the author shows how these writers stake a claim for the liminal space that is neither one thing nor the other This allows a freedom to expose oppression and to critique a national identity based on erasure By employing a language of nonnormative gender and sexuality to dispute the state projects of modernity and modernization the voice of the poor and racialized travesti evolves from powerlessness to become an agent of social transformation The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel Juan E. De Castro, Ignacio López-Calvo, 2023 The Latin American novel burst onto the international literary scene with the Boom era led by Julio Cortázar Gabriel García Márquez Carlos Fuentes and Mario Vargas Llosa and has influenced writers throughout the world ever since García Márquez and Vargas Llosa each received the Nobel Prize in literature and many of the best known contemporary novelists are inspired by the region's fiction. Indeed, magical realism, the style associated with García Márquez, has left a profound imprint on African American, African, Asian, Anglophone Caribbean, and Latinx writers. Furthermore, post-Boom literature continues to garner interest from the novels of Roberto Bolaño to the works of César Aira and Chico Buarque to those of younger novelists such as Juan Gabriel Vásquez, Alejandro Zambra, and Valeria Luiselli. Yet for many readers, the Latin American novel is often read in a piecemeal manner, delinked from the traditions, authors, and social contexts that help explain its evolution. The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel draws literary, historical, and social connections so that readers will come away understanding this literature as a rich and compelling canon. In forty-five chapters by leading and innovative scholars, the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction, helping readers to see the region's intrinsic heterogeneity; for only with a broader view can one fully appreciate García Márquez or Bolaño. This volume charts the literary tradition of the Latin American novel from its beginnings during colonial times, its development during the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century, and its flourishing from the 1960s onward. Furthermore, the Handbook explores the region's representations of identity, narrative trends, and authors that make this literature so diverse and fascinating, reflecting on the Latin American novel's position in world literature.
