

Para quienes se han iniciado (o están por hacerlo) en el pensamiento y las técnicas terapéuticas de Carl R. Rogers, este trabajo es casi imprescindible. Escrito por encargo de la American Psychological Association, expone una codificación del sistema rogeriano "centrado en el paciente", el cual constituye un marco conceptual de objetivos científicos amplios y ejerce una amplia influencia más allá de su propio campo.

Se desarrollan aquí tres teorías: una teoría de la personalidad, una teoría de las relaciones interpersonales (que se benefician con un análisis de mayor extensión) y una teoría de la terapia (posiblemente la más sólida). Todas convergen en la búsqueda de una teoría fuertemente integrada y abarcadora. Todas esperan con este fin las discusiones próximas, los aportes futuros.
