Terence Rattigan The Man And His Work:

Terence Rattigan Michael Darlow, Gillian Hodson, 1982-02-01 Terence Rattigan Michael Darlow, 2000 In his lifetime he was a well known public figure yet despite his friendships he always publicly hid his homosexuality In this biography Michael Darlow has described this aspect of Rattigan's life and fully considers it in relation to his work The Drama of Marriage J. Clum, 2012-01-02 In studying performances of marriage in modern and contemporary British and American drama Clum highlights the fact that paradoxically at a time when theatre was both popular entertainment and high culture many of the most commercially and artistically successful plays about marriage were written by homosexual men Beginning with Oscar Wilde and focusing on some of the most successful British and American playwrights of the past century including Somerset Maugham Noël Coward Terence Rattigan and Eynon Williams in England and Clyde Fitch George Kelly Tennessee Williams William Inge and Edward Albee in the US The Drama of Marriage looks at how the plays they wrote about heterosexual marriage continue to impact contemporary gay playwrights and the depiction of marriage today Continuum Companion to Twentieth Century Theatre Colin Chambers, 2006-05-14 International in scope this book is designed to be the pre eminent reference work on the English speaking theatre in the twentieth century Arranged alphabetically it consists of some 2500 entries written by 280 contributors from 20 countries which include not only top level experts but uniquely leading professionals from the world of theatre A fascinating resource for anyone interested in theatre it includes Overviews of major concepts topics and issues Surveys of theatre institutions countries and genres Biographical entries on key performers playwrights directors designers choreographers and composers Articles by leading professionals on crafts skills and disciplines including acting design directing lighting sound and voice How Stage Playwrights Saved the British Cinema, 1930-1956 David Cottis, 2024-12-26 Examines the film careers and work of British playwrights who worked as screenwriters between 1930 1956 During the period between the 1927 Cinematograph Films Act and the new drama of the 1950s many British writers associated with the stage also wrote for films bringing the techniques of the well made play with them Some like Bernard Shaw Noël Coward and Terence Rattigan were screenwriter stars part of the publicity of the films they worked on Pygmalion Brief Encounter The Way to the Stars Others were less celebrated but had long successful screen careers such as R C Sherriff author of Journey's End who worked on films as different as The Invisible Man The Four Feathers and The Dam Busters Using the authors original archives this book follows the way in which these writers adapted their stage skills for the screen contributing to the post war Golden Age of the British cinema and creating the classic form of screenplay that continues today The Flyer Martin Francis, 2011-05-19 Between 1939 and 1945 the British public was spellbound by the martial endeavours and dashing style of the young men of the RAF especially those with silvery fabric wings sewn above the breast pocket of their glamorous slate blue uniform Martin Francis provides the first scholarly study of the place of the flyer in British culture during the Second World War Examining the lives of RAF personnel and their popular representation in literary and cinematic texts he illuminates broader issues of gender social class national and racial identities emotional life and the creation of a national myth in twentieth century Britain In particular Francis argues that the flyer s relationship to fear aggression loss of his comrades bodily dismemberment and psychological breakdown reveals broader ambiguities surrounding the dominant understandings of masculinity in the middle decades of the century Despite his star appeal cultural representations of the flyer encompassed both the gentle chivalrous warrior and the uncompromising agent of destruction Paying particular attention to the romantic universe of wartime aircrew Francis reveals the extraordinary contrasts of their daily lives dicing with death in the sky one moment before sitting down to lunch with wives and children in the next Male and female experiences during the war were not polarized and antithetical but were complementary and interrelated a conclusion which has implications for the history of gender in modern Britain that reach well beyond either the specialized military culture of the wartime RAF or the chronological parameters of the Second World War

Replay: Classic Modern Drama Reimagined Toby Zinman, 2014-11-20 Replay Classic Modern Drama Reimagined spans over a century of great theatre to explore how iconic plays have been adapted and versioned by later writers to reflect or dissect the contemporary zeitgeist Starting with A Doll s House Ibsen s much reprised masterpiece of marital relations from 1879 Toby Zinman explores what made the play so controversial and shocking in its day before tracing how later reimaginings have reworked Ibsen s original The spine of plays then includes such landmark works as Strindberg s Miss Julie Oscar Wilde s comic The Importance of Being Earnest Chekhov s Three Sisters and Uncle Vanya Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun the Rattigan centenary revivals Thornton Wilder s Our Town ultimately arriving at Beckett s Waiting for Godot Taking each modern play as the starting point Zinman explores the diverse renderings and reworkings by subsequent playwrights and artists including prominent directors and their controversial productions as well as acknowledging reworkings in film opera and ballet Through the course of this groundbreaking study we discover not only how theatrical styles have changed but how society s attitude towards politics religion money gender sexuality and race have radically altered over the course of the century In turn Replay reveals how theatre can serve as both a reflection of our times and a provocation to them
