Teresa Of Avila And The Politics Of Sanctity:

Teresa of Avila and the Politics of Sanctity Gillian T. W. Ahlgren, 1998 Teresa of Avila one of history's most beloved mystics wrote during a time of intense ecclesiastical scrutiny of texts The determination of the Counter Reformation Church to dominate religious life and control the content of theological writing significantly influenced Teresa's career as reformer and writer Gillian T W Ahlgren explores the theological and ecclesiastical climate of sixteenth century Spain in this study of the challenges Teresa encountered as a female theologian and mystic As inquisitorial censure increased and the authority of women's visions and ecstatic prayer experiences declined Teresa's written self expressions became of necessity less direct Her later writing was heavily encoded and scholars have only recently begun to decipher those protective codes Ahlgren demonstrates how Teresa's rhetorical style and theological message were directly responsive to the climate of suspicion created by the Inquisition and how they thus constituted a challenge to sixteenth century assumptions about women The only female theologian to be published in late sixteenth century Spain Teresa sought to provide a clear defense of mystical experience particularly that of women Ahlgren suggests that the rhetorical strategies Teresa developed to protect women's visionary experiences were subsequently used by Church officials to rewrite aspects of her life and thought transforming her into the model for official Counter Reformation sanctity

Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe Merry E. Wiesner, 2000-07-03 This is a major new textbook designed for students in all disciplines seeking an introduction to the very latest research on all aspects of women's lives in Europe from 1500 to 1750 and on the development of the notions of masculinity and femininity The coverage is geographically broad ranging from Spain to Scandinavia and from Russia to Ireland and the topics investigated include the female life cycle literacy women's economic role sexuality artistic creations female piety and witchcraft and the relationship between gender and power To aid students each chapter contains extensive notes on further reading but few footnotes and the approach throughout is designed to render the subject in as accessible and stimulating manner as possible Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe is suitable for usage on numerous courses in women's history early modern European history and comparative history

Witchcraft, Exorcism and the Politics of Possession in a Seventeenth-Century Convent Nicky Hallett, 2017-11-22 Presenting a remarkable set of previously unpublished papers this book concerns the bewitchment possession and exorcism of two seventeenth century nuns living in exile in an English convent in the Spanish Netherlands The two women left behind an extensive set of personal writing that reveals unprecedented detail about their devotional lives and spiritual states before during and after exorcism Unlike other similar cases here the women write for themselves for the first time in 350 years this book allows their voices and their silences to resound in all their vibrancy An extensive introduction discusses the politics of piety and possession at a time when exorcism had become increasingly contentious amidst conflicting claims for rival church reform The book includes both autobiographical and biographical material written by the nuns and about them and casting new light on processes of female self writing at just the time when the modern subject is often said to have emerged

Between Dung and Blood Manuela Ceballos, 2025 Between Dung and Blood investigates the stories of two sixteenth century saints the Spanish Christian Teresa de Jes s and the Moroccan Sufi S d Ri w n al Januw both from families of converts Through the stories of these saints Manuela Ceballos reveals the roles played by blood and bodily pollution as substances and symbols in the religious and political fabric of the early modern Western Mediterranean Drawing primarily on Arabic and Spanish sources the author argues that in Morocco and Iberia ideas about blood and bodily pollution helped shape processes of bodily differentiation as well as social hierarchies based on notions of ritual purity and impurity Providing an inside look at the dynamics within Moroccan and Iberian societies as they grappled with the social and religious upheaval of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Ceballos shows that the real and imagined border between geographies and religious traditions could at times be porous and conducive to shared beliefs

Female Monasticism in Early Modern Europe Cordula van Wyhe, 2017-03-02 This volume of twelve interdisciplinary essays addresses the multifaceted nature of female religious identity in early modern Europe By dismantling the boundaries between the academic disciplines of history art history musicology and literary studies it offers new cross cultural readings essential to a more comprehensive understanding of the complexity of female spirituality in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Utilising a wide range of archival material encompassing art architecture writings and music commissioned or produced by nuns the volume s main emphasis is on the limitations and potentials created by the boundaries of the convent Each chapter explores how the personal and national circumstances in which the women lived affected the formation of their spirituality and the assertion of their social and political authority Consisting of four sections each dealing with different parts of Europe and discussing issues of spiritual and social identity such as Femininity and Sanctity Convent Theatre and Music Making Spiritual Directorship and Community and Conflict this compelling collection offers a significant addition to a thriving new field of study

The Mystical Science of the Soul Jessica A. Boon, 2012-12-07 The Mystical Science of the Soul explores the unexamined influence of medieval discourses of science and spirituality on recogimiento the unique Spanish genre of recollection mysticism that served as the driving force behind the principal developments in Golden Age mysticism Building on recent research in medieval optics physiology and memory in relation to the devotional practices of the late Middle Ages Jessica A Boon probes the implications of an embodied soul for the intellectual history of Spanish mysticism Boon proposes a fundamental rereading of the key recogimiento text Subida del Monte Si n 1535 1538 which melds the traditionally distinct spiritual techniques of moral self examination Passion meditation and negative theology into one cognitively adept path towards mystical union She is also the first English language scholar to treat the author of this influential work the Renaissance physician Bernardino de Laredo a pivotal figure in the transition from medieval to early modern spirituality on the Iberian peninsula and a source for Teresa of Avila s mystical language

New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism Hilaire Kallendorf, 2010 The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints. Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined. Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature. Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts. The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures. Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29. Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non academic readers.

Early Modern Catholicism Robert S. Miola, 2007-06-28. Early Modern Catholicism makes available in modern spelling and punctuation substantial Catholic contributions to literature history, political thought, devotion and theology in the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries. Rather than perpetuate the usual stereotypes and misinformation, it provides a fresh look at Catholic writing long suppressed, marginalized and ignored. The anthology gives back voices to those silenced by prejudice, exile, persecution or martyrdom, while attention to actual texts challenges conventional beliefs about the period. The anthology is divided into eight sections: Controversies, Lives and Deaths, Poetry, Instructions and Devotions, Drama, Histories, Fiction and Documents, and includes sixteen black and white illustrations from a variety of Early Modern sources. Amongst the selections are texts which illuminate the role of women in recusant community and in the Church, the rich traditions of prayer and mysticism, the theology and politics of martyrdom, the emergence of the Catholic Baroque in literature and art and the polemical battles fought within the Church and against its enemies Early Modern Catholicism also provides a context that redefines the established canons of Early Modern England including such figures as Edmund Spenser John Donne John Milton William Shakespeare and Ben Jonson The Congrégation de Notre-Dame, Superiors, and the Paradox of Power, 1693-1796 Colleen Gray, 2007-10-25 Nuns have often been portrayed as nascent feminists wielding an exceptional amount of power In this formative study of the Congrégation de Notre Dame a religious community of uncloistered women established in Montreal in 1657 Colleen Gray presents a more nuanced view of the foundations and exercise of power within the convent
